

NO GOOD LIQUOR IN U. S., AGENT STATES

Dry Law Can Be Enforced, A. P. MacPhee Tells Rotary Club.

NEED MANY MORE MEN

"There is no good liquor in the United States," was the claim made Tuesday by Alexander P. MacPhee, assistant prohibition enforcement administrator, speaking before the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon.

To all practical purposes, Mr. MacPhee stated, the booze sold as pre-war or imported stuff is cleaned commercial alcohol with fake labels and revenue stamps. This declaration was part of the speech on the troubles of an enforcement agent.

"The Federal Prohibition department," the speaker said, "is not trying to do police work—we leave that up to the local authorities. The great effort is being made to enforce the law at the source, to inspect carefully the issuing of permits and to watch the high-power breweries."

How progress is being made by the dry force was told in a review of Volstead work since the act was passed. Until 1925, Mr. MacPhee stated, the enforcement was under the thumb of Washington politicians working through an administrator for each State.

In 1925 the work was put under the control of 25 district administrators, whose final word was law. This move was sponsored by General Lincoln C. Andrews in an effort to divorce enforcement from politics. The plan has been successful and was further sponsored in 1927 when enforcement was put under Civil Service. This process weeded out a number of misfits and still further took the work out of politics.

The speaker gave instances of his experience with the moonshine outfits, cutting plants and bootleggers infesting the eastern cities. He told of the various sources of bad liquor—white moonshine and denatured alcohol.

The problem of enforcement in this district where 60 agents must watch 45 breweries and thousands of bootleggers is difficult. A total of 16,000,000 gallons of industrial alcohol was manufactured in a part of the Pennsylvania district in 1927 and distributed by permit. The task of watching this flood to see that it was not re-distilled to form "pre-war" whiskey was a herculean one.

Of 5000 samples of booze analyzed by Government chemists, less than 100 were good, according to the speaker. A large part of it had

Library Contributions Total $370 for Required Equipment.

There is still time and need for additional contributions to the fund being raised to buy additional shelving and other required furnishings for the Narberth Community Library. One hundred and thirty dollars is needed to complete the $500. During the past week contributions totaling $37 were received, which added to the amount previously acknowledged brings the total received to date to $370.

Meanwhile, the work of the library grows steadily and the need for additional furnishings becomes more pressing each week. The circulation of books during March reached the high-water mark of 3179, which was 400 over the largest monthly circulation since the library was started, and 700 over the circulation for February.

The total gifts received to date follow:

Previously acknowledged	$333.00
Jesse S. Harris	5.00
Mrs. A. J. Sigel	1.00
John McIntyre	2.00
Miss Nellie Wetherill	2.50
A. Gilfillan	5.00
John R. Miller	2.50
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fredericks	10.00
Miss M. E. Ewing	2.00
Evelyn Jefferis	1.00
Suzanne J. Gill	1.00
Sunday Hour Club	5.00
Total	$370.00
Still Needed	$130.00

BOLTON TALKS ON CHILD BEHAVIOR

Temple Psychologist Is the Speaker at Mothers' Council Meeting.

SAYS 'BLOOD WILL TELL'

Dr. Thaddeus L. Bolton, head of the psychology department of Temple University and a local resident, was the speaker at the regular meeting of the Mothers' Council at the Narberth school Monday evening.

Parents who heard Dr. Bolton talk on the "Whys and Hows of Children's Behavior" were encouraged not to worry over some unusual behavior by their offspring, because children for generations have been born with the same instincts and general reactions, both physical and mental. They pass through phases of behavior which ordinarily disappear as new phases take their place. Dr. Bolton said, however, that if these did not disappear, a careful study should be made to locate the causes of the difficulty and remove them if possible.

Dr. Bolton is one of the psychologists who emphasize the importance of inheritance in determining the behavior of the child, and concluded his talk with the idea that "blood will tell."

The study group of mothers of the seventh and eighth grade pupils will meet on April 19 at 3 o'clock in the school library.

On Friday evening, April 20, the Mothers' Council will unite with the Community Club in a good citizenship meeting to be held in the Narberth school, announcement of which is made in another column.

At the last meeting of Mothers' Council the amendment to the by-laws changing the date of the regular meetings to the third Monday of each school month instead of the second, was read and passed.

The banner which is being given to the room having the greatest number of parents in attendance at Mothers' Council meetings was won for the third time by the fourth A grade in charge of Miss Miller.

A Nominating Committee has been appointed in preparation for the election of officers for the coming year. Those on the committee are Mrs. J. H. Patton, 506 Homewood avenue; Mrs. W. C. Spencer, Mrs. J. M. Mark, Miss Florence McKay and Mrs. Joseph McClay. Anyone wishing to make suggestions regarding the new officers may send them to Mrs. Patton, the chairman of the committee.

TO ERECT STORES

Ground was broken last Tuesday on Haverford avenue opposite the old fire house for two stores to be erected by Robert J. Nash. This will remove the only vacant lot in the main business section on Haverford avenue. The stores are to be two-story affairs with stone front and granite base. The frontage of 41 feet will be divided into two buildings of 20 times 60 feet.

MADE HEALTH OFFICER

William J. Smith, of Bala, has been appointed health officer for certain parts of second class townships in Montgomery county. He replaces Squire Fred Walzer, of Narberth. The appointment was effective as of the first of the month.

HOLD CITIZENSHIP MEETING FRIDAY

Col. I. A. Miller, Judge Knight, Mrs. Schwartz Ministers, the Speakers.

SINGING IS A FEATURE

The Community Citizenship meeting to be held Friday night, April 20, in the Narberth School Building will be addressed by ministers from each of the local churches. Rev. Gibson Bell, of All Saints' Episcopal Church; Rev. Robert F. Hayes, of St. Margaret's; Rev. Robert E. Keighton, of the Baptist Church; Rev. Samuel MacAdams, of the Methodist; Rev. Cletus A. Sent, of the Lutheran, and Rev. John Van Ness, of the Presbyterian Church, are among those who have promised to be present and speak briefly on the topic of Community Citizenship. This is a splendid opportunity for all residents of Narberth to show their interest in civic affairs and to learn from their spiritual leaders what the responsibilities of citizenship are.

Promptly at 7.30 o'clock Bruce A. Carey, of Brookhurst avenue, in order to create a feeling of fellowship, will start the crowd singing. No one need fear embarrassment for not knowing the songs, for many of them will be the old and familiar ones, and song sheets will provide the words. Mr. Carey's reputation as a song leader was enhanced by his work with the Sesqui-Centennial chorus, and in Narberth needs no further introduction. Peter Stam, Jr., will be at the piano.

Col. I. A. Miller, president of the School Board, has been asked to give an address of welcome, and Judge Knight, of the County Court, will speak on American citizenship. Mrs. Herman Schwartz, well known to all the women of Narberth, whose organizations she has frequently addressed, will speak on the responsibility of the voters. Much is said about the responsibility of office holders and Mrs. Schwartz contends that in the voters also rests a responsibility that is frequently ignored. Her discussion will be interesting, as she always has a convincing way of presenting a theme.

The meeting is under the auspices of the Legislative Committee of the Women's Club. All those who have been asked to participate in the program have agreed most willingly to do so, stating that such meetings as this promises to be would do a great deal toward raising the civic standards of the town.

Decorations of the hall are in charge of Mrs. J. W. Darville, and members of the Junior Community Club will serve as ushers. All residents of the town are invited to attend this meeting.

"OPEN HOUSE" POPULAR

A most enjoyable evening was spent by Legionnaires and their friends at the "open house" of the Post at the Community Building last Tuesday. Over 40 couples danced to the music of the Horn & Hardart radio broadcasting orchestra for a good share of the evening and played cards the remainder.

Observer Gone, Weather Reports Continue---Aye, and Loud Ones!

When Main Line Weather Man Charles Decker departed for Boston several days ago the weather, freed from restraint, cavorted even more capriciously than usual for the wild month of April. Commencing with April Fool's Day, and continuing with a prospect of ballad-inspiring showers before its close, April is no month for a weather man to leave unwatched. We all found that out Wednesday night.

Fearful lest some wintry pranks disturb the beautiful spring the Main Line has been enjoying recently, this paper decided to import a weather man to fill the breach left by the temporary absence of the Narberth observer.

A Hindu mystic was accordingly brought here from Atlantic City. Swami, he said his name was, although he may have mistaken himself for some 124,312 others by the same name who prognosticate and theosophize throughout the United States.

Arrived at Ardmore Sunday evening after the Easter Parade, Swami took one look at the sunset and proclaimed "warmer and thunder showers." Evidently he was thinking of last week's weather forecast, and got his signals mixed. We gave him another chance Monday.

Swami stuck to his guns Monday, in the face of increasing coolness and continuing clear skies. "Can't help but get warmer some time," he made mystic incantations and lighted a cigarette.

On Tuesday Swami decided he had not made a sufficient study of the portents. For three hours he muttered strange Hindu passwords that sounded even more like Gaelic epithets. With charcoal, tar and molasses, he prepared a burnt offering on the rooftop—he tried it first on the Sanctum's prize rug.

Then he said, "Warmer with increasing cloudiness Wednesday, followed by clear skies in time for the ball games." And then it snowed.

New Code Siren of Latest Type to Be Installed at Fire House

In keeping with the alterations and improvements to the fire house itself the Narberth Fire Company is having a new code siren installed to replace the old apparatus. The old siren had been causing trouble and frequently was out of order at an inopportune time.

The new siren will also be of service to communities outside of Narberth, since its tone will be different from that of any fire whistle on the Main Line. This will save Cynwyd and Ardmore firemen particularly, much confusion and annoyance by identifying the territory exactly. In the past it has often been difficult to tell which siren was blowing.

Narberth firemen also will benefit by the new siren since it will blow the location of the fire according to a pre-arranged code. They can thus go directly to the fire without making a roundabout trip to the fire house to see where the fire is. Two blasts, for example, might designate the south side and three the north side. And no longer will firemen come rushing to the fire house only to find that the Broadway limited had gone by.

A feature of intrinsically great importance, however, is the fact that the system when completely installed will include a call-box system. The wiring and connections for this will be prepared now so that when needed call boxes may be set up throughout the borough. This will alleviate trouble at the present time in reporting a fire. People on a party line may be kept waiting several minutes trying to get central while their house goes up in smoke around them. By using a box to report a fire the alarm is sounded immediately, the siren being blown by releasing the lever of the box.

People in the vicinity of the fire house whose auditory nerves have borne the strain of the old siren may also rejoice since the new apparatus will blow shorter blasts and will shut itself off automatically. The present apparatus blows until it is shut off by hand, whereas the new one will blow the signal and stop. The new equipment will be thoroughly modern and up-to-date, and will have no brushes to get out of order.

COUNCIL STAGES A QUIET MEETING

Girl Scout Room of Community Building Used by Local Rulers.

TAXES ARE TURNED IN

A most uneventful meeting of borough council marked Monday night's work in the local government. Most exciting, perhaps, was the plan for a new siren, elsewhere mentioned. This will be installed as part of the improvements to the fire house.

These improvements caused a migration on the part of the town fathers, for the meeting was held in the spacious Girl Scout rooms, where the air is better than at the home quarters, but where the acoustics are terrible. This is the first meeting of council in the Community Building.

Edwin P. Dold, tax collector, turned in $223.52, being some belated collections. He announced that there were only about $6000 outstanding.

Mrs. John Bickford Brooks petitioned council to rezone her Narberth avenue property for business purposes. This was referred to the Board of Adjustment.

Pachysandra terminalis came in for a share in the meeting when a letter was read from the Barclay Company advocating the planting of ground-cover plants along the railroad banks. Pachysandra, an evergreen low-growing Japanese shrub, was recommended. Council referred the letter to the Narberth Board of Trade.

TO GIVE GYM EXHIBIT

Its fourth annual gymnasium exhibition will be given by the Lower Merion Junior High School in the auditorium of the Junior High tonight. The entire school will take part. Parents and friends are invited.

SENIOR CLASS TO GIVE TWO PLAYS

Comedy Will Prevail Next Friday in High School Dramatics.

NINE WINS 2-1 GAME

Two plays, "Tickless Time," by Susan Glaspell, and "The Taming of the Shrew," by Shakespeare, will be given by the senior class of the Lower Merion High School as its dramatic offering of the year 8.15 o'clock next Friday evening, April 20, in the Junior High School auditorium, Ardmore.

For many weeks a large cast of students has rehearsed its parts, and next week final dress rehearsals will be given in preparation for the performance Friday. Miss Dorothy Holland, head of the English department, is faculty adviser of the Senior Dramatic Club, and the coach of the players.

Assisting Miss Holland in the direction of the play are Theodore Moore, also of the English department, and Miss Gene France, a member of the Dramatic Club.

Miss Greta Gibbons, as Katharina, the shrew, in Shakespeare's comedy, which will be in modern dress, will be the star. She is president of the Dramatic Club, which has sponsored the plays.

The high school orchestra will entertain with several numbers during changing of the scenes. "Tickless Time" will begin at 8.15 P. M., to be followed by "The Taming of the Shrew."

PENSHURST COWS WIN HONORS

By averaging 728 pounds of 3.99 per cent. milk, 28.67 pounds of butter-fat in February the 105 Ayrshires owned by Penshurst Farm, Narberth, ranked among the leading producing herds of the United States, tested under the rules of the Ayrshire Herd Test, according to the Ayrshire Breeders' Association. This herd has a six months' cumulative average of 722 pounds of 4.11 per cent. milk, 26.69 pounds of butter-fat, per cow, per month. The outstanding production in the herd was that of Penshurst Lady Betty, that gave 1555 pounds of milk, 67.80 pounds of butter-fat; she is a junior four years old. Another good yield was recorded for Crusader's Mabel Mischief of 1532 pounds of milk, 64.65 pounds of butter-fat.

TO LEARN OF ELECTIONS

Narberth members of the Republican Women of Pennsylvania are planning to attend the School of Politics next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Hannah Penn House, Philadelphia.

Prominent speakers will discuss presidential possibilities, the coming primaries and conventions, etc. More than a dozen speakers prominent in local and national affairs will conduct the meetings.

SCHEDULE FOR BOY WEEK COMPLETED

Comprehensive List of Events Announced By Main Line Council.

MANY PRIZES OFFERED

Plans were completed Wednesday for Boy Week, to be held from April 28 to May 5, inclusive. All towns in Lower Merion Township and Narberth will participate in the many events scheduled.

The program was drawn up in final form at a meeting of the Main Line Boy Council in Ardmore. Representatives of various community groups gave their final O. K. to the ambitious schedule laid out in previous meetings.

The Boy Week will begin Saturday, April 28, with an auto parade. This will start at Roberts road and Lancaster pike, Rosemont, and will travel through Bryn Mawr, Haverford, Ardmore, Wynnewood, Narberth, Merion and Bala-Cynwyd to Bryn Mawr avenue and City Line.

At the same time a courier relay will run from Rosemont to Philadelphia City Hall, where a scroll will be presented to Mayor Harry A. Mackey.

In the parade will be many decorated autos and floats, in addition to pieces of apparatus from Main Line fire companies. Prizes are to be awarded for the most artistic car; the most original car; most original Boy Scout car; most artistic Boy Scout car and best boys' float. H. H. Phillips of Cynwyd is in charge of the parade, with A. L. Reinhold, of Ardmore looking after the floats.

Mass meetings and song services at five points will form the Sunday feature. For Ardmore, Haverford and Wynnewood, the services will be held at the Ardmore Theater, at 3.00 P. M. Walter M. Wood, general secretary of the Philadelphia Y. M. C. A., will be the speaker and music will be furnished by the Lower Merion High School orchestra. Rev. A. C. Kanzinger, of Ardmore, is chairman.

Merion and Ashland will join with Bala-Cynwyd in a service at St. John's Church, Sunday evening at 8.00. The speaker will be the Rev. Churchill Jones Gibson, D. D., new rector of St. Mary's Church, Ardmore. Dr. Herbert Tily will have charge of the music. Rev. Frank M. Gray is general chairman.

At Gladwyne the services will be held at the community center, with W. Russell Green, Esq., of Narberth, as the speaker. Special music is being prepared according to Chairman Harry J. Mosteller. Similar services are being planned for Thirty-nine Tailors and Cleaners Members of New Association.

The Main Line Cleaners and Dyers' Association, composed of 39 tailors and cleaners from City Line to Wayne, received its charter last night. The occasion was a meeting of the Board of Directors in the Moose Hall in Bryn Mawr.

Meetings of the association are held once a month on the second Tuesday. Practically all tailors in the general Main Line section are members.

P. R. T. COMPLETES DEAL

The Montgomery Bus Company and the Philadelphia Suburban Transit Company whose lines on Montgomery Pike the first-named corporation operates, were acquired by the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company along with the Quaker City Cab Company and another suburban bus company for a total consideration of $1,825,000. This was the statement last Wednesday before the Public Service Commission in Philadelphia made by Ralph T. Sentner, president of the P. R. T.

The total assets of the Montgomery Bus Company and the Philadelphia Suburban Transit line were given as $697,992; the liabilities as $97,992, which made the net value of these lines an even $600,000.

INVITES 5000 OUT FOR MASS MEETING

New York Engineer Will Speak at Park's Session

TUESDAY IS DATE SET

Five thousand invitations have been sent out to residents of the Main Line and others to attend the mass meeting in the Lower Merion High School, April 17, at which time the movement to convert the Mill Creek Valley into a public park will take definite form. Jay Downer, New York engineer, will speak and tell of Westchester county's park program.

The invitations have been distributed among the members of the 19 welfare and civic organizations in the Main Line section interested in the project to make Mill Creek Valley "the Wissahickon of the Main Line," as well as among prominent citizens of the section unaffiliated with any of these organizations.

The movement is being sponsored by the Community Health and Civic Association, of Ardmore, and the organizations co-operating in the undertaking to preserve the natural beauties of Mill Creek Valley, in addition to the Community Association, are the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce, the Ardmore Women's Club, the Bala-Cynwyd Women's Club, the Bryn Mawr Business Men's Association, the Bryn Mawr War Memorial and Community House Association, the Garden Club of Bala-Cynwyd, the Haverford Township Commissioners, the Keystone Automobile Club, the Kiwanis Club of Ardmore, the League of Women Voters, the Lower Merion Township Commissioners, the Merion Civic Association, the Merion Cricket Club, the Narberth Women's Community Club, the Neighborhood Club of Bala-Cynwyd, the Regional Planning Federation, the Rosemont Civic Association and the Rotary Club of Ardmore.

Has Influential Backers

The backers of the park project are convinced the movement will be supported by virtually everybody interested in the development of the Main Line section and point to the fact that many influential men are already giving their support. Samuel Rea is chairman of the committee in charge of the April 17 mass meeting. Other members of the committee are Richard J. Hamilton, Alfred M. Collins, Robert W. Lesley and Samuel P. Wetherill, Jr., and it is probable that the names of several representative Main Line women will be added later.

"Many residents of the Main Line whose properties adjoin the tract tentatively laid out for park purposes have already strongly indicated their support of the project," said Mr. Lesley yesterday, "and with these promises of co-operation we feel that the movement will undoubtedly be successful."

Cleanliness and Care Have Produced Results

TODAY the mortality rate in the territory we serve is much lower than before modern methods of milk production were introduced. Where epidemics formerly appeared from time to time, these sections now have become comparatively immune.

The highest standards of quality and cleanliness exist in selecting and supervising our country supply sources . . . The same care follows every step of production from the farm to your home. At various dairy products shows, farmers whose milk output is bought by Supplee-Wills-Jones invariably are awarded the majority of prizes offered. A recent case was the show at West Chester, in which 8 prizes were taken by dairies whose output is purchased by this company. These include the silver cup for high score. Our milk has been awarded 32 Gold Medals in 18 years and a total of close to 400 prizes, including medals, cups, ribbons, banners, etc. . . . This record is unapproached by any other milk anywhere.

SCHEDULE FOR BOY WEEK

Bryn Mawr and for Narberth under the direction of Rev. John Van Ness.

On Monday the preliminaries for the athletic contests will be held beginning at 3. They are open to boys 6 to 17 years of age. Bala-Cynwyd, Merion and Ashland will hold the meet at the Cynwyd School grounds, under the chairmanship of Vern Jorgenson; Bryn Mawr at the school grounds, with C. C. English in charge; Ardmore, Haverford, Gladwyne and Wynnewood at the high school athletic field, under W. Perkins, and Narberth at the community playground, with Harvey J. Harmon, as chairman. Winners will compete in the finals Saturday, May Tuesday's plans call for an essay contest in the schools on the subject, "Hobbies," under the direction of superintendent of schools S. Edgar Downs.

On Wednesday three father-son ball games are to be played at 5 P. M. The places will be the Cynwyd School grounds, Gladwyne playground and Ardmore Autocar field. Daniel J. Kennedy is in charge.

Three contests are slated for Thursday. At 4:30 P. M. the bugle contest will be run off at the Senior High School under the direction of Fred C. Patten. The harmonica meet will be conducted by Eugene W. Baldwin at the Junior High School at the same hour.

The Narberth playground will be the scene of the marble contest at 4 o'clock. Chairman H. A. Buehler has announced that the winner will compete in the county contests, and if winner, in the national tournament. The local winner will get a gold medal, and each school victor in the preliminaries, will rate a bronze medal and a trip to Valley Forge.

Saturday Will Be Wind-up Day.

Friday afternoon will be marked by the Boy Scouts in citizenship. From 4 to 5 o'clock all offices in the township building will be filled by Boy Scouts. H. M. Faucett is in charge.

Saturday, the wind-up will be a busy day for the boys. At the Ardmore Y. M. C. A. Mr. Beuhler will conduct the swimming meets from 9 A. M. to noon. At 3 P. M. Main Line boys from 6 to 14 will meet at the Cynwyd School grounds for the kite flying contest under the management of F. H. Seely.

Prizes in this event will go to the kite flying highest, the smallest boy flying a kite, the smallest kite, the most artistic kite and the one with the hardest pull. Five gold medals will be awarded.

The finals in the athletic contest will be run off at the high school field at 2 P. M., under direction of Harvey J. Harmon. Winners in the Monday events will compete for gold, silver and bronze medals in each of the four classes.

The awarding of the prizes will take place Saturday evening when 29 sets of medals will be given out. Boys will report to one of the points nearest his home. The theaters of Ardmore, Narberth, Bryn Mawr and Cynwyd will give place in their programs for the prize awards and the winners will be guests of the management in each case.

Fifteen thousand copies of the detailed program are being printed for distribution and posters will announce the events. The plan this year calls for a week which will far eclipse last year's effort, both in the number of events and in the number of communities represented.

GILFILLAN CAMP

Swimming Club

Spring Lake

Paoli, Pa.

The primary object in joining a club of this kind is that one may go there for a couple of hours in the evening for some real exercise and relaxation or enjoy a whole day in the great outdoors.

Spring Lake, because of its accessibility to the Main Line and its natural beauty, makes it irresistible. The location, combining the attractions of woods and fields, provides ideal picnic spots. The lake affords quiet, shallow water for canoeing. There is a beach for timid swimmers and beginners, and for the more advanced swimmers and divers every facility for water sports, tennis, basketball and other sports is offered. The year-round membership includes ice-skating privileges.

There is health in the great outdoors—health in its fullest sense—physical, mental, spiritual. Our late President Roosevelt said: "To be fit mentally, one must be fit physically." This exclusive little place will serve the latter purpose.

Adults, $10.00; six to sixteen years, $5.00. Children under twelve years of age must be attended by adults. Guest, accompanied by member, 50 cents. Special rates for families. Swimming instructions, six lessons for $5.00.

AGAINST WOMEN SMOKING

To the Editor of Our Town:

It is regrettable, if indeed not culpable, that there should be persons in high religious stations who not only condone but defend and sponsor so unsanitary and positively unwholesome an indulgence as smoking by girls and women.

It cannot be gainsaid that smoking, aside from its harmful physical effects, is a filthy procedure, fouling one's breath and creating an impression of reckless freedom of conduct, if not, indeed, "moral abandon." While we do not mean to imply that a girl or woman who smokes is necessarily sacrificing any recognized or adopted religious virtues, we do insist that it is not becoming, that it savors of a certain degree of moral license and that it pollutes the smoker's breath and more or less defiles the teeth and the other tissues of the mouth. It reduces woman to the lower, self-indulgent plane of man in place of being to him an example and inspiration as a refined, dainty, sweet, clean, unpoluted personality.

But all of this is rather ethical or psychic, or what might be said affects the sweet power of woman. What is equally and possibly more serious and important is the physical effect smoking has upon several organs of the body and the nervous system of the smoker. It is unquestionably true that smoking impairs the efficiency of the heart and the nervous system generally, aside from its action upon the immediate tissues of the mouth, the throat and the whole respiratory system. Everyone knows that athletes during their period of training are forbidden the use of tobacco. Why? Because it affects "the wind," in other words, the action of the heart and the functions of the lungs, as well as the efficiency of the nervous system. We all know that some men have so impaired their nerve control that they are obliged to smoke before they can calm down to quiet thinking. In other words, tobacco acts as a sedative or nerve depressant, and that is, in simpler language, a partial killing off of our nerve forces, always harmful and injurious.

If smoking is harmful to the athlete, common sense will dictate that it is harmful to any person in any walk of life. Put a few drops of nicotine on a cat's tongue and you will have a dead cat in a very few moments.

And this indulgence of smoking is all the more serious for women than for men for the reason that women are more susceptible to these toxic influences, due to their finer and more responsive nerve mechanism. It is difficult to understand that persons of enlightenment cannot comprehend and understand all of these facts, both ethical and physical, and live in harmony with them. And it is certainly deplorable to find that a person of high repute and of otherwise fine mental achievements should go about advocating and championing so unsavory and harmful a practice.

The FIRESIDE

Mrs. Wesley Washburn and her two small sons, of Brooklyn, N. Y., visited friends here this week. Mrs. Washburn will be remembered as Miss Eleanor Wilson.

Miss Dorothy Durbin, of North Narberth avenue, spent last week-end in Montclair, N. J.

Mr. William Burgess, 242 Hampden avenue, was among those noted on the boardwalk at Atlantic City last week-end.

Miss Grace Moffatt, of Haverford avenue, is recuperating at her home from a recent minor operation.

Mrs. George Butts, of Lantwyn lane, has returned from a visit with her parents in Boston, Mass.

Many Narberthites attended the Penn State Thespian play and dance at the Penn Athletic Club Tuesday. A few of those were Miss Lois Smith, Miss Peg Burrell, Miss Virginia Smith and Miss Florence Hutchinson, Horace Wanamaker, "Gus" Hamer, Frank Hutchinson and Herbert Burrell.

Friends of Mrs. Charles J. A. Decker, 50 Wynnedale road, will be sorry to hear that she is seriously ill in a hospital in Boston, Mass. Mr. Decker is with her, but spent two days this week at his home. He returned to Boston on Thursday.

Miss Vera Bailey, of Narbrook Park, sailed last week for a two months' tour of France and Italy.

Mrs. J. Frazier Purge entertained at a luncheon and bridge party Tuesday at her home on Elmwood avenue. Her guests included Mrs. Mary M. Livingston, Mrs. Agnes M. Rose, Mrs. George W. Michener, Mrs. C. C. Tyson, Mrs. W. A. Monroe, Mrs. Samuel P. Bowman, Mrs. George H. Schultz, Mrs. John A. Caldwell, Mrs. Robert H. Durbin, Miss Laura Brown and Mrs. J. C. Sullivan.

Mr. Purse and his son Monroe, returned this week from a trip to Florida. Mr. and Mrs. George M. Dando, of Ardmore road, and Mrs. Dando's parents, of Lower City, Pa., as their guests last week.

Mrs. Martha Sunderland, of Hampden avenue, and Miss Eleanor Knauer, of Lantwyn lane, visited in Altoona over the Easter holidays.

Mrs. George Howard Reese, of 215 Hampden avenue, entertained at a luncheon Thursday for several guests from Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Nash entertained a few friends informally at their home on Lantwyn lane Friday evening. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Kishel, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Crowe, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Sirzell and Mr. and Mrs. George Slain.

The guests who attended the luncheon and theater party which Mrs. Richard McCarey, of Philadelphia, gave last Saturday, are Mrs. William Butler, Miss Jane Morris, Mrs. John A. Borden, Mrs. Henry Smith, Mrs. J. J. Carrey, Mrs. F. W. E. Stedem and Miss Jane A. Morris.

Miss Dorothy Speck has returned to Hood College, Md., after spending the winter vacation with her parents on Woodbine avenue.

Miss Anne Barclay has resumed her studies at the University of Delaware. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barclay, of Homewood avenue. Her brother, Joe, returned Monday to Hamilton, N. Y., where he is a student at Colgate.

The semi-monthly card party of St. Margaret's Church which was suspended during Lent, was resumed this week in the Library of the school on Forrest avenue. The hostesses this week were Mrs. Hugh Leahy and Mrs. George Meyer. Mrs. Blake and Mrs. McLernon will be the hostesses at the next affair which will be held Tuesday, April 24. A great many women went forward to the party, as a good time is sure to be had.

"Bill" Senn was the guest of honor at a surprise party which the choir of the Lutheran Church gave on the occasion of his twenty-first birthday last week. Among the guests were the Misses Martha Maxwell, Julia Robinson, Alma Weigel, Wilhelmina Weize, Dorothy Jones, Betty Seabolt, Dorothy Kirsch, Mrs. J. J. Reilly, Mrs. J. T. Barclay, Mrs. A. J. Denman, Miss Georgianna Hoffsten, Mrs. Cletis Senn, Miss Florence Sauffer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clippam, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Senn, Miss Freda Senn, George Sioholm, "Bud" Compton, Bill Bangfield, Max Kirsch and Lewis and Oscar Senn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cabrey, of Windsor and Narberth avenues, motored to Atlantic City early this week. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Compton, Miss Anne C. Compton and "Bud" were guests of Mrs. Compton's mother in Geomantown over the past week-end.

Mrs. George E. Stackhouse gave a delightful surprise party Tuesday evening in honor of her husband. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Joyner, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Drinkwater, Miss Mildred Alkwater, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hollis, Miss Louise Hollis, Mr. Buford Hollis, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vandersloot, Carol, Frederick and James Vandersloot, Mr. Isaac Shaver, Mr. Thomas Patton, Miss Margaret Binney, Mr. Laurence Binney, Mrs. Helen Parker, Mr. Elden Rine, Mr. Stanley Brown and Mrs. James S. Keightley, who before her recent marriage was Miss Elverda Stackhouse.

Mr. Paul Shaver has returned to his home on Price avenue after a two weeks' business trip.

Mr. John W. Cooper spent the week-end at his home in Shenandoah, Pa.

The annual rummage sale of the Lutheran Choir will be held today at the usual place, Thirty-eighth and Market streets, in Philadelphia.

SHOW DAIRY FILMS TO W. C. C. MEMBERS

Milk and Ice Cream Industries Are Visualized and Explained.

VISIT THE NEW MUSEUM

About thirty club women and guests met at the home of Mrs. Eberhard Mueller on Essex avenue Tuesday. The Home Economics Committee presented a speaker, who explained up-to-date electric refrigeration. This talk was followed by a movie endorsed by the Medical Milk Commission of Philadelphia. Miss Ellen S. Branton, as the two reels were shown, described in minutest detail the production of certified milk and pasteurized milk, grade A. A third reel showed the making of ice cream by machinery in the Abbott plant, with which Miss Branton is associated.

The importance of absolute cleanliness and health both of cows and employees was well illustrated by lovely pastoral scenes on model farms far removed from the cities. Holsteins, Jerseys and Ayrshires had posed for pictures in clean, whitewashed barns, where individual drinking basins and finely-chopped ensilage were provided for cows who had been tuberculin tested by veterinarians. Each cow is groomed and washed before every milking, two sterilized towels being used to dry each cow. Every milk man has a clean white suit each day and he washes thoroughly before milking into clean pails. The milk is then tested, weighed, cooled, bottled, dated and stored. It is ready for delivery 19 minutes after leaving the cow. The bottles before being used are scrubbed and baked—100,000 of them a day at one place. If milk is clean and kept covered and cold it will keep sweet a long time.

For producing pasteurized A milk for one company 1200 farms are left under inspection. The milk is brought to a "center" where it is pasteurized. It is tested for bacteria and for butter-fat and also for garlic or other "taste."

Watching the manufacture of ice cream certainly makes one's mouth water. Gallons upon gallons of cream, after being pasteurized and having sugar added were cooled and stored in glass tanks. From these pipes ran to a number of freezers, each capable of holding from 100 to 120 quarts of ice cream. In twelve minutes this semi-frozen cream runs into boxes and cans and is sent to refrigerator rooms to cool. It is then ready for delivery, untouched by hands. After the showing of movies, Miss Esther Waas demonstrated the latest fancy forms of ice cream, which can be bought, packed in dry ice, ready to serve—sure to tempt and then to satisfy the appetite. The guests each ate a different form of ice cream, realizing that the proof of the ice cream was in the eating.

Class Visits Museum.

The last of the series of four art talks was enjoyed Thursday morning by a group of ten club members. Mrs. George Trenholme, of Bala, gave first a general survey of art and second a talk on particular artists and individual painters. These first two meetings were held on Thursdays in March at the home of Mrs. Douglass on Elm Terrace. On Thursday, April 5, the group enjoyed actually seeing pictures by the old masters in the Johnson collection at 510 South Broad street, Philadelphia. The crowning treat was the fourth lecture, which took the form of a most interesting tour of the Art Museum on the Parkway. The beauty and vastness of the museum itself was forgotten a little in the joy of seeing one by one beauty and skill as shown by such masters as Titoretto, Veronese, Botticelli, Cuvot, Gainsborough, Romney, Reynolds and Reynolds.

The meetings of the Women's Community Club on April 17 will be held at the Community Building on Windsor avenue in the Girl Scout room. The annual election of officers will be held at this meeting and every member is urged to be present and vote.

The program of the afternoon will be under the direction of the dramatic chairman, Mrs. Henry Frye, who will give dramatic readings and other surprise numbers. There will also be a short musical program.

On April 23 at 2 o'clock a card party will be given by the Welfare Committee at the home of Mrs. G. N. Gill, 216 Dudley avenue, for the benefit of the welfare work. These parties have been most successful during the year and a record attendance is assured.

On April 11 Mrs. C. A. Farmer entertained the Executive Board and the Board of Directors at bridge at her home, 424 Woodbine avenue.

DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Mrs. Lillie D. McFall, 67, died Sunday at her home, 536 Hansell road, Wynnedale. Lobar pneumonia was given as the cause of death. The body was sent to Darlington, S. C., where funeral services were held.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held in the Community Hall, Windsor avenue, Narberth, Penna., Thursday evening, April 19th, 1928, at 8:00 o'clock Standard Time, to consider the notice of appeal by Mrs. Ellen A. Wafer to the Board of Adjustment of Zoning of the Borough of Narberth from the decision of George B. Supple, Building Inspector of the Borough of Narberth, refusing permission to improve property 137 Narberth avenue by the erection of stores and apartments.

All property owners who are interested should arrange to attend the meeting.

P. B. KROUT,
Chairman, Board of Adjustment.
W. D. R. EVANS,
WALTER I. DOTYARD.

She's the Shrew

Creta Gibbons, who has the leading part of Katharina, the Shrew, in Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew," which will be given next Friday evening, April 20, by the senior dramatic club of Lower Merion High School in Ardmore. The play will be in modern dress. Miss Gibbons has been president of the dramatic club for the past two years.

PIKE SIDEWALKS TO BE PAVED SOON

February, 1927, Ordinance Will Be Enforced By Township.

Property owners will soon be required to pave sidewalks along Montgomery pike in Haverford, Ardmore, Wynnedale, General Wayne, Merion and Cynwyd. Close on the heels of winter comes the announcement by Evan L. James, township secretary, this week that notices will soon be sent all the property owners affected, to comply with the law.

For years pedestrians have objected to the lack of sidewalks along Lancaster and Montgomery pikes outside of business districts, and on February 2, 1927, the township commission passed Ordinance Number 237, providing for "the construction and paving sidewalks on both sides of Montgomery avenue, from 270 feet east of the center line of Creswell Lane to Bala avenue."

The ordinance was not enforced, because shortly afterwards it was found that work would soon be commenced for widening the pike. After the Union Company completed its work, cold weather set in, and property owners were given another respite.

April 15, however, is set by law as the first warm-weather date after which the township authorities may enforce paving ordinances. Notices will soon be sent out in batches, warning property owners that if sidewalks are not provided to a width of at least four feet on both sides of the pike, the Highway Department will do the work, and collect for it from the property owners.

Thirty day's grace is allowed after service of notice, before work need be commenced, but the paving must be completed within 60 days of receipt of the notice by the property owner.

SCHOOL TAX WILL AGAIN BE 15 MILLS

Expenditures $241,500 More, But Revenue Will Keep Pace.

GRANT LIBRARY PLEA

Fifteen mills will continue to be Lower Merion's school tax rate for 1928. The same as that of 1927, it is one mill higher than that of 1926. The per capita tax of $1 will also remain the same. Such was the decision made by the School Board at its April meeting held Wednesday night in the Senior High School at Ardmore.

"Ten mills of the 15-mill rate will pay current expenses," said Secretary William J. Byrnes, Jr., in his report recommending adoption of the new budget, "and five mills will pay for new building work and the purchase of grounds."

"By practicing the most rigid economy, and making use of the increased tax from the new township assessments, we hope to pay for the new Merion school annex and other building work within a year, without having recourse to increasing the bonded indebtedness of the township."

The 1928 budget calls for estimated expenses of $1,261,500 and for a total revenue of the same amount to be raised as follows: $1,125,000 from the 15-mill tax on an approximate taxable valuation of $75,000,000; $68,000 from the State, and $40,000 tuition from other sources, including the Borough of Narberth; $16,500 from 16,500 township residents as their per capita tax, and $12,000 in miscellaneous items including interest on bank balances, delinquent taxes expected to be collected, etc.

The 1928 budget calls for expenditures $241,500 in excess of those for 1927, which totaled $1,020,000. Much of the increase is attributed to payments which did not become due until this year for extensive improvements and additions to four township schools begun last year. Also, an addition will be built for the Merion school, to be begun before summer.

Mr. Byrnes' budget report was read by Thomas C. Yocom, Cynwyd member of the board, in the secretary's absence. Mr. Byrnes, who is slowly convalescing from a severe illness, was voted a leave of absence by the board in order that he may recover fully, rather than incur danger of a relapse by resuming his duties too soon.

Included in the 1928 budget, as adopted unanimously by the school directors, is provision for a $500 increase in annual contributions to each of the public libraries in Bala-Cynwyd, Ardmore and Bryn Mawr. Requests had been made by all three for $2000 apiece this year, instead of the $1500 amount previously given them.

Decision was made to purchase an Autocar 6-cylinder 43½ horsepower bus to add to the school transportation system. The net cost will be $5978, which is lower than bids made by two other competing concerns.

GENERAL BOWMAN, VETERAN, 81, DIES

Bowman Avenue, Merion, Was Named in Honor of His Ancestors.

FUNERAL IS WEDNESDAY

Major General Wendell Phillips Bowman, a civil war veteran, former commander of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, for years colonel of its First Regiment, and one of the Main Line's oldest residents, died Sunday after a brief illness. He was 81 years old.

Funeral services were held 2 P. M. Wednesday at the late residence. Interment was in the Merion Friends' Meeting.

General Bowman, whose home, Elm Hall, is at Bowman and Montgomery avenues, Merion, had been in ill health for two years. Nevertheless, he was in his law office in the Lincoln Building Friday, when he became seriously ill, and was taken to his home.

He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Lizzie W. Malcolm, daughter of the late Rev. Thomas Shields Malcolm, a prominent Baptist minister.

General Bowman commanded "the old First" during the Spanish-American war. He was widely known both in legal and military circles, and had a large circle of friends in Philadelphia, New York and elsewhere.

He was born at Byberry, in the Twenty-third ward, October 31, 1847, the second son of Henry and Grace Bowman, and represented the fourth generation in this country of his family, which came from Derbyshire, England. General Bowman was educated in the Benjamin Rush school and the Byberry Friends' school. At the start of the civil war he became a drummer boy in the Byberry Guards, but various attempts he made to get to the front were frustrated because of his youth and small size.

For a number of years he was compelled to walk on crutches, and it was not until 1874 that he fully recovered. He studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1872.

He was a member of George G. Meade post, G. A. R., active throughout his life in the Republican party, notably in the Blaine campaign of 1886, when he toured the State. He was for some years a director of the Union League.

His house at Merion stands on a part of the original farmstead of his first ancestor in this country, Roger Bowman. Among other organizations and clubs, General Bowman was a member of the Merion Cricket Club and the Penn Club.

A PAGE FOR NARBERTH'S CHURCHES

AN EASTER MESSAGE

Delivered Last Sunday by
Rector of All Saints
P. E. Church.

But if the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwelleth in you. Romans VIII, 11.

In times of sorrow one of two emotions is aroused. We visit the family and find them heartbroken because some loved one has gone on into the bigger life. Nothing will comfort them. They even blame themselves. They feel that they have not done all that could have been done to save the life of the little one. Witnessing such sorrow causes us to weep with the mourning one and the fact that they will not be comforted increases the burden upon our sympathizing hearts.

On the other hand, such comfort, such peace, such trust as is exhibited by those who have with regret, but very willingly commended the soul of their loved one into the holy, loving care of God, provokes cheer and joy from us and enlists the same feeling within us of comfort and joy and peace.

There is very little Christianity in the material world. The physical controls our minds. We have inherited from the ages past a feeling that death means the end of all. In this busy world, controlled by our nervous impulses, we can only think as real that which we can touch and see and hear. Though filled with the indwelling Spirit of God we cast it aside to a place of secondary importance and depend only upon our own efforts and abilities. The Easter message has no opportunity to take possession of us. In sorrow we do not feel the love of God and we do not see the hand working for righteousness. The resurrection of our Lord is not a part of our religion; it is not a reality to us.

That our Lord rose from the dead was not questioned by His followers who on the day of His crucifixion had given up all hope. The Apostles knew that He rose from the dead and their lives were molded by that fact, which was the basis of all of their theology. St. Paul constantly refers to the resurrection of the body, not meaning the natural body which is suited to this world of nature, but the spiritual body. We do not know the characteristics.

Rector of All Saints

The Rev. Gibson Bell, rector of All Saints' Protestant Episcopal Church, continues the series of sermons with an Easter Message.

We do not know what the spiritual body is like. Our faith and absolute trust in a loving God does not even prompt us to inquire. St. Paul points out so often that the mystery of the resurrection of the body is similar to the mystery of the changed body in nature. We sow a seed which grows into a plant and in time blossoms forth into a beautiful flower. Looking at the seed, yes, even dissecting the seed, we can not in any way prophesy the nature of the plant that will grow out of that seed. It is changed, but how it is still a mystery to you and me. So it is with the resurrection of the body. We do put on the incorruptible, we do become a spiritual body, but how, we do not know.

Easter day brings to us this truth and makes real to us the fact that we are now in the beginning or first stage of our existence. It is the happiest day of the year, not excepting Christmas, when we celebrate the incarnation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. By the incarnation we have revealed to us the true nature of God, which we could never have known in any other way. Easter brings us the message of continuing in fellowship with the revealed living God.

What a power this message has! He who loved us and for whom we held such high ideals is still alive watching us with loving eyes. What an opportunity and inspiration and power! We continue looking more and more to God for daily guidance. In another case a mother, whose influence has made of us what we are, whose trust in God has been such a lesson to us and from whom we have learned to depend upon His loving care, is still alive watching us as we learn to know God better, loving more and more God's holy ways. What an inspiration and power for us!

Finally, just to know that this is not the end, to be assured that this is but the preparation for a more united and more intimate life with God; how much greater the urge to open our hearts and let God have His abode therein.

God grant that the spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead may dwell in us and that He may quicken our mortal bodies by that same spirit.

HOLD CARD PARTY

The ladies of St. Margaret's Church will entertain at cards on Tuesday afternoon at 2.15 o'clock in the school library. Tea and home-made cake will be served, and there will be a prize for each table. Admission, 50 cents.

LUNCHEON SCHEDULED

The regular monthly luncheon of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held on Thursday, April 19, at 1 o'clock, in the church. The business meeting will follow immediately after.

STAGE PLAYLET

"Renting Jimmy," a playlet, will be given by the National School of Elocution and Oratory on Thursday evening, April 19, at 8 o'clock, in the Sunday school room of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. The playlet will be directed by Dora Adele Shoemaker, principal of the school. A silver offering will be taken.

PLAY FOR TITLE

The Narberth Methodists will play the Narberth Presbyterians in basketball at the Presbyterian Church gymnasium on Thursday, April 19, at 8 P. M. The winner of this game will be recognized as the champion of the Church League, as these two teams are tied for first place at present. The teams are evenly matched so a close game is anticipated. All interested are invited.

REPORT PROGRES

Observant persons walking down Laverford avenue have noticed a strange new structure take shape before their eyes during the last week. This is, ladies and gentlemen, part of the additions and alterations to the fire house. Those who frequent Forrest avenue have noticed a large hole gaping at the front of the building. When completed this hole will be the basement of the front addition and will house the heating plant.

The alarm tower on the north corner has been dismantled, giving the building a more symmetrical shape. Hazardous indeed, has been the path of those seeking the superintendent of public works. Over lumber, through new cut doorways lies the trail. The one familiar scene is the card room where the pinochle sharks hold forth unmoved by the stir and commotion around them.

Rev. John Van Ness, M. A., Minister

This Church enters the innermost Holy of Holies of the Christian Temple on Sunday morning as we approach our quarterly observance of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. It is the most private and personal meeting place—the appointed rendezvous between our blessed Lord and His disciples. To all those who make preparation "in the solitude of self-examination" and who come eagerly to discover anew the significance of these Christian "mysteries" this Communion will bring a real benediction. All believers in the Lord Jesus Christ are most welcome to participate in this sacramental service.

PREPARING FOR WORK

Highway Committee Lays in Supplies, Will Place "Dead End" Signs.

The report of the highway and sewer committee of council as read at the meeting of that body last Monday shows that supplies are being laid in for street work for the coming season. In compliance with requests from citizens, a "dead end" sign will be placed at the entrance of Wynnedale avenue. Wynnewood Court and Elm Terrace will also be so marked. The report was received as read. A complete version follows:

After receiving competitive bids which were examined at a special meeting of this committee, we have authorized Superintendent Suplee to purchase materials and supplies for street work during the coming season from the following: The Atlantic Refining Company, to furnish and apply hot oil at 12 cents per gallon; the Atlantic Refining Company, to furnish and apply penetration oil at 12 cents per gallon; Barber Asphalt Company, to furnish Barber Crack Filler in barrel lots at 19.4 cents per gallon; the Buckite Company of America, to supply Buckite at $7 per ton, f. o. b. their plant; the Good Roads Company, to cover specified sections of concrete road with hot oil and chips, including spreading and rolling, at 21 cents per square yard.

Residents of Wynnedale avenue wish to have a "Dead End Street" sign erected at the entrance to their street, believing that thereby they will be relieved of annoyance and damage. Three such signs could probably be erected at a cost not exceeding $20. We recommend that this committee be authorized to erect such signs on Wynnedale avenue, Wynnewood Court and Elm Terrace.

Expenditure for labor by this committee during the month of April amounted to $1080, divided as follows: For collecting 851 cubic yards of ashes, $826.20; for street cleaning, $229.50; for clearing away snow, $24.30.

During the month of April three permits for depositing materials on the public highways were issued at $1 each and the fees therefore were collected and turned over to the Borough Treasurer.

During the same month five permits to open the public highways were issued, the fees therefor totaling $91, which was collected and turned in to the Borough Treasurer.

DEADLINE RUSHES STAFF

Lower Merion Year Book Editors Draft Girls for Typing.

The business of getting the Lower Merion High School senior class year book to press assumed high pressure proportions last week when Editor Robert Kessler and his staff faced a printing "deadline" on the first batch of copy for the annual. Notes and data which had been permitted to pile up until the last minute were hurriedly collected and a dozen girl students were drafted to aid the editorial board in typing these. Everybody took a hand and Class President Sam Barclay lended aid as boss-foreman.

The greatest work was with the personal writeups of the seniors, which will appear alongside of their individual photos in the year book. Other matter turned in was a class prophecy written by Bertha Lerner, a class history by Ellen Shaw, and a legacy on which several seniors co-operated. All pictures of seniors have now been taken. Group pictures of athletic teams and various clubs still remain to be finished.

The annual, in addition to the group photos, will contain individual pictures of approximately 130 seniors.

HOLD LUNCHEON

Montgomery County League of Women Voters Stages Annual Affair.

The annual spring luncheon given by the Montgomery County League of Women Voters will be held at the William Penn Hotel Quinard on Wednesday, April 18. Tickets, $1.50. This is the candidate luncheon and there will be the opportunity of hearing both sides and seeing the would-be officeholders. Full details of speakers, etc., can be obtained by calling Mrs. A. C. Staples, Narberth 3670-R, this information not being at hand when this notice goes to press.

When a refrigerator contributes to the health and comfort of the whole family for years to come when a refrigerator cuts the tasks and the costs of housekeeping then it proves itself a thoroughly sound investment.

The General Electric Refrigerator consumes very little current because all the heat generated rises above the cabinet, not through it. And because its efficient motor is unusually small. Its roominess makes fewer trips to market possible. All foods are preserved in healthful freshness, because the temperature never rises above the 50 degree danger point. Food wastage is absolutely done away with.

"Co-operation cuts cost" is our slogan, which is not an empty collection of words, but a slogan that means "service" at a lower price than food could otherwise be sold. It exercises a restraining influence on the monopolistic chain stores who could, were it not for the co-operative stores, obtain a much higher price from the consumer. The true value of any trade-mark or name depends upon the confidence it has created. Building that confidence, or good will, is the principal purpose of advertising. WROTE 119 BOOKS

Indorsed by Pulpit, Press and Parents. Now No One Reads Them.

From 1870 to 1900 Horatio Alger, Jr., author of "Ragged Dick," "Do and Dare," "Sink or Swim" and more than 100 other books for boys, was the most widely read writer in America. Press, pulpit and parents were unanimous in indorsing his books and urging boys to read them, and, surprising in view of that approval, boys did read the Alger books and liked them. While interest in these books has since permanently waned and ceased among both boys and adults, it is now predicted that the new book called "Alger, a Biography Without a Hero," by Herbert R. Mayes, will soon be a best seller. That book is now available at the Narberth Library.

This biography portrays an unusually interesting personality, even though a weak one, which bore slight resemblance to the boy heroes who animated the Alger books. As an infant and small boy Alger got away to a poor start under the fanatical dominance of his father. There were years of drifting, some gay life in Paris, more years in the newsboys' lodging house in New York, a valiant and courageous crusade against the padrone system which then cruelly exploited Italian boys in New York, and finally years of futile hopes, of profligate and somewhat aimless writing and then the end, with post-mortem newspaper acclaim that would have immensely gratified him.

Such in brief is the career that this book reveals, but, more than that, it discloses a wistful, boyish, generous personality for whom the sympathy and understanding of the reader is aroused, perhaps because nearly everyone has failed in some points as Alger did: little failures of indecision, of procrastination, of hopes deferred and impulsive foolishness. Alger was decidedly not a great man, but he was a very human one.

TO VIE FOR CUP

The Merion Grammar School basketball team has been practicing for the cup games which started last week with the game between Merion and the Cynwyd School. Two practice games have been played with the Wynnewood road school. The Merion squad is composed of the following: Brown, Reinhart, Griffith, Morian, Wimer, Beuk and Gaul.

GLADIOLI. The gladiolus is one of the satisfactory, summer-bowering, tender bulbs that is among the best of cut flowers. Easy to grow, convenient to plant, simple to dig and store over the winter and not fussy as to soil.

Just a good sunny spot and normal rainfall and the bulbs will gladly grow and blossom. Plant them four to five inches deep in fair loam, not in clay or hardpan, and as far apart as you see fit, but plant them in groups of a color, not in a row like soldiers, and not a hodge-podge of color, unless you have a cutting garden. If so, you can line them out and buy a mixture.

Mixed bulbs can be bought at a low price and the primulinus hybrids in mixture will give a good range of orange, yellow and pink shades and are really very graceful and very satisfactory as cut flowers. Among the named varieties of "prims," Dorothy Wheeler is a good pink, blooming in 65 days, and Alice Tiplady a good orange saffron, blooming in 69 days.

The blooming time of gladioli varies with varieties from 60 days to 115 days and in listing varieties below we are giving the approximate blooming time, figuring, of course, on the bulbs being planted after the ground has warmed up in late April or early May.

Bulbs planted while the ground is cold will not grow and bulbs planted late will not have time to ripen and develop new buds before freezing weather in the fall, so that if we want to get the maximum from our investment we will plant early so that we can harvest a good crop for the following year. If we want flowers for Labor day, or after summer vacation time, we can plant the bulbs on July 1, or thereabouts, and have the flowers and take a chance on the harvest.

Now that we have decided to plant early, let us decide to have flowers over a longer season and divide our supply of bulbs into four parts and plant one-fourth on each Saturday during May. (Not on Sunday—it interferes with golf)

Among the reasonably priced varieties we have in white are White Wonder, 75 days; Albania, 85 days; Peace?

Pink—Mrs. Frank Pendleton, Jr., 70 days; Evelyn Kirtland, 73 days; Halley, 70 days; Le Marchal Foch, 70 days, and America, 115 days.

Orange scarlet—Mrs. Francis King, 100 days.
Golden yellow—Golden Measure, 100 days, and pale yellow, Schwaben, 100 days.

Rose lilac—Mrs. F. C. Peters, 95 days; violet, Jacoba Van Beyren, 89 days.

Red—Crimson Glow, 94 days, and War, 75 days.

Odd colors—Anna Eberius, rosy purple, 85 days and one of the best; Mrs. Doctor Norton, white and pink, 77 days.

There are several thousand others and new ones coming every season, but the names above will suggest some of the color ranges and will serve as an index as to how the blooming time will vary.

At the Theater

Love and laughter, with two American soldiers and an Arab girl as the principals, are the principal ingredients of "Two Arabian Knights" post-war doughboy comedy-drama which will be seen Monday and Tuesday at the Narberth Theater. None of the sordidness of war enters the story, which is concerned with the rollicking experiences of a rich, young private and a hard-boiled first sergeant, fated to be buddies throughout a series of hilarious adventures though they had been natural enemies.

William Boyd plays the stellar role which is this war's first appearance in a major film since his work in "The Volga Boatman."

With Boyd is Mary Astor, who played opposite John Barrymore in "Beau Brummel" and Douglas Fairbanks in "Don Q."

Jack Holt, Dorothy Revier and Pa. Harmon make a line combination in "The Warning," which opens at the Narberth Theater Wednesday and Thursday. The picture is a detective drama in the locale of Hang Kong, China. It offers unlimited opportunity for action, suspense and thrills.

The photographic atmosphere of the Chinese city and the human interest touches introduced for color show skill on the part of the director.

Graustark—with its dramatic shadows and romantic high lights—kingdom of George Barr McCutcheon's vivid imaginings—comes to the Narberth Theater screen in "Truxton King." John Gilbert is starred in this photodrama, which begins a two-day run on Friday.

Those who have read the book will be pleased to know that the story follows the plot and main details. Those who have not read the novel will probably want to get it after they have been regaled by the adventure, comedy and love interest that the film offers. There is a great deal of excitement in the vest pocket monarchy, more than enough for a solid evening's entertainment.

MADE PAROLE OFFICER

Lieutenant "Patsy" Mullin Is Given Six Liquor Law Violators to Watch.

Lieutenant Ignatius "Patsy" Mullin, of the Lower Merion police force, was named parole officer for six liquor law offenders last Wednesday in Criminal Court at Norristown. Fines varying from $50 to $150 and costs, plus a suspended sentence of one year in jail, were imposed on the Lower Merion residents recently rounded up by the township police and convicted of illegal possession of liquor.

The offenders, who were all placed under parole for one year, suspended sentence, are Peter Mann, Nick De-onci and Daniel Mattioli, Marco De-Stefano, Carmine Marchesane and Samuel A. B. Stein.

Just ONE Minute for Your Children

A service for their future they will appreciate

Look at your life insurance policies. If they read "Payable to . . . , my wife, if she survives me; otherwise to my executors, administrators and assigns," you are not giving the service to your children you think you are. The law, and not you, may dictate what they shall receive, and at considerable cost and delay.

I should enjoy the privilege of explaining in detail how you can correct this condition without any cost.
